

Bright Coffee Shop Sales Analysis

- October, 2025

Bright Coffee Shop Objective

Which products generate the most revenue

What time of day does the store perform best

Sales trends across products and time intervals

Recommendations for improving sales performance

Which products generate the most revenue(1/2)

- Coffee leads with R269,590.80 (39%), followed by Tea (R196,305.45, 28%) and Bakery (R81,365.14, 12%). These three categories make up nearly 80% of total revenue, showing that beverages, especially coffee and tea, drive most sales.

Which products generate the most revenue(2/2)

- Barista Espresso leads with R91,101.90 (13%), followed by Brewed Chai Tea (11%), Hot Chocolate (10%), and Gourmet Brewed Coffee (10%).
Together, these four products generate over 40% of total revenue, highlighting coffee and specialty teas as key sales drivers.

What time of day the store performs best(1/2)

- The line graph shows that sales peak between 8 AM and 10 AM, with the highest revenue recorded around 10 AM (R88,302.39).
- This indicates that the stores perform best during the morning hours, likely due to customers buying coffee and breakfast items on their way to work.
- Sales gradually decline after 11 AM, suggesting that mornings are the most profitable time of day for the business.

What time of day the store performs best(2/2)

- Morning sales lead with R386,471.07 (56%), followed by afternoon (29%) and evening (15%). Most revenue comes from morning coffee and breakfast purchases.

Sales trends across products and time intervals(1/2)

Morning drives sales with R386,471.07 (56%), followed by afternoon (29%) and evening (15%).
Coffee (39%) and tea (28%) dominate across all times, especially mornings, showing strong demand for hot drinks and bakery items.

Sales trends across products and time intervals(2/2)

- Weekdays lead with R502,520.09 (72%) of revenue, while weekends contribute R194,854.09 (28%). Coffee (39%) and Tea (28%) dominate weekday sales, with bakery items and hot drinks driving overall performance.

Recommendations for improving sales performance

1. Maximize Morning Sales:

Between 8–10 AM, revenue is highest, consider adding specials or combos to boost spend.

2. Improve Weekend Performance:

Weekends account for only 28% of sales, consider launching weekend deals or loyalty offers.

3. Increase Engagement:

Promote bestsellers via social media and in-store ads to attract off-peak customers.

4. Promote High-Margin Items:

Upsell premium coffee, teas, or pastries to raise revenue per customer.

5. Cross-Sell Combos:

Offer bundles like “coffee + scone” to grow basket size.

6. Boost Evening Sales:

Add light snacks or coffee specials to attract after-work customers.

A close-up photograph of a white ceramic coffee cup on a matching saucer. A stream of dark coffee is being poured from a glass carafe into the cup. In the background, slightly out of focus, are several round, golden-brown bread rolls and a sandwich on a white plate. The sandwich appears to have lettuce, cheese, and meat. The overall lighting is warm and soft, creating a cozy atmosphere.

THANK YOU

Phindile Mnisi